#ngIndia

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Angular is one of the most popular frameworks to create modern web. Across the world "ng" conferences enable industry and individuals to come under one roof and gain from the wisdom and insights of people who have helped push the boundaries of the Angular technology.

- ng-India is India's premier Angular event
- ng-India event is being hosted by Geek97
- Event will feature very advanced Angular topics that will be delivered by experts from premium technology companies like Apple, Book My Show, Infragistics and others.
- The event will bring together 200-250 attendees and 10 prominent industry experts

ABOUT THE HOST

- geek97 is an offline community of JavaScript developers
- Its objective: Help members in improving working on JavaScript.
- geek97 is a framework agnostic group (all popular JavaScript frameworks, including Angular, React and Vue, are given equal importance).
- geek97 works by hosting frequent meets in which developers meet, learn and share their knowledge about JavaScript. (Since August 2016, geek97 has hosted 10 Angular Day a.k.a "ng-day" across 7 cities in the country attended free of cost by 2000 + developers) .
